

Speaking Engagements

Stanley Turkel is available to speak at your company or organization, at hotel industry events and tradeshows, professional society and trade association meetings, destination marketing organizations, conventions and conferences, tourism bureaus and agencies, colleges and universities.

Please take note: Mr. Turkel's new book "Built To Last: 100+ Year-Old Hotels in New York" was published in 2011. What a great subject for your next meeting.

Some of his recent speaking engagements:

2012

Jan. 11 "Great American Hoteliers: Pioneers of the Hotel Industry" as the Pistilli Lecturer of the Hotel & Lodging Association of Kansas City, Missouri

2011

Nov. 21 "Century-Old Hotels in New York" to the brokers of the Sperry Van Ness Co. via conference call

May 10 American Reconstruction - "George Henry White and the End of Reconstruction" at Queens College of New York

May 4 "Defying Time: 100+ Year-Old Hotels in New York" at the Harvard Club of New York

May 3 American Reconstruction - "Pinckney Benton Stewart Pinchback, Robert Smalls, Albion Winegar Tourgee" at Queens College of New York

Apr. 5 American Reconstruction - "Thomas Wentworth Higginson, John Mercer Langston, James Longstreet" at Queens College of New York

Mar. 29 American Reconstruction - "Cassius Marcellus Clay, Robert Brown Elliott, Charlotte Forten Grimke" at Queens College of New York

Mar. 22 American Reconstruction - “Adelbert Ames, Samuel Chapman Armstrong, Blanche Kelso Bruce” at Queens College of New York

Mar. 15 American Reconstruction - “Background of Reconstruction” at Queens College of New York

2010

October 18 “History of U.S. Hotels and Hoteliers” at the NYU Tisch Center for Hospitality, Tourism and Sports Management

June 17 “From Ragas to Riches: The Growth of the Asian American Hotel Owners Association” at the AAHOA Owners Association” at the AAHOA Convention in Chicago, Illinois

Apr. 5 “A Fascinating Look at the History of U.S. Hotels” to Brokers of the Sperry Van Ness Co. via conference call

Jan. 5 “The Men Who Invented Florida: Henry Morrison Flagler, Carl Graham Fisher, Henry Bradley Plant” at the NYU Lifelong Learning Center